DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 10-41 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement dated February 23, 2004.

Claim Objections

Claims 4 and 8 are objected to because of the following informalities:
Concerning claim 4, the examiner objects to the claiming of events that affect a sensed biological state since these are natural events. Clearly, there are indefinite numbers of other natural events that directly or indirectly can affect biological states. Accordingly, events such as these are not patentable. Concerning claim 8, the claim does not offer any kind of explanation (ranges) as to the definition of "light, moderate, heavy, short, long, low, and high". In order to properly claim these rankings, each and every term must be defined in the claim. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mann, et al.

The cited patent discloses an outer housing, a power source, a plurality of user-selectable operators, a transmission device, and a closed-loop algorithm for the processing of input signals.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mann, et al., in view of Crothall, and/or Connelly, et al. In view of the above objections, the examiner of record has included Crothall, and Connelly, et al. in this rejection. These references teach the use of closed-loop algorithms to monitor and rank defined body conditions. Accordingly, using a program that ranks signals sensed by monitoring devices would have been considered an obvious design alternative.
